practices.

Rationale for Revision

By 1990, Nigeria had experienced significant economic shifts, including increased foreign investment, a burgeoning private sector, and a shift towards privatization. The old legislation was deemed insufficient to address contemporary corporate issues, leading to the enactment of CAMA 1990, which introduced new provisions on company registration, management, compliance, and corporate governance.

- Public Companies: Can offer shares to the public, often listed on stock exchanges.
- Unlimited Companies: No limit on liability.
- Companies Limited by Guarantee: Commonly used for non-profit organizations.

Understanding these distinctions is crucial for compliance, corporate planning, and strategic decision-making.

- Board of Directors: Responsible for strategic management, fiduciary duties, and compliance.
- Shareholders: Protected through voting rights and dividend entitlements.
- Meetings and Resolutions: Procedures for convening general meetings, passing resolutions, and recording decisions.

Transparency is reinforced through provisions requiring:

- Annual Financial Statements: Prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards.
- Auditor Appointments: Appointment of independent auditors to verify financial health.
- Filing with the Corporate Affairs Commission (CAC): Submission of annual returns and financial reports to ensure statutory compliance.
